Arrests Reveal Marsh Land Offenders Are Being Prosecuted

Approve Buena Vista Site As Orphanage and Seek Lease

SEVERAL TULE OFFENDERS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Trespassers Made An Example Of; Other Prosecutions to Follow Persistent Disregard of Warnings.

Persistent acts of trespassing and vandalism have so aroused owners of property in the marsh and tules lands at Fairville, Wingo and Tubbs Island that several arrests were made this week and more are likely to follow. Two duck hunters from San Francisco, Dr. Robert E. Kershaw and Ed Kennedy, were caught trespassing on the Foster ranch, the first of the week and upon becoming impudent to caretaker Jim Reed, they were taken into custody by Constable John Mohr. Charged with refusing to heed the warning signs of no shooting, they were given a hearing before Judge Justi and fined $15 each.

A day or two later Alfred Church was taken into custody at the Foster duck lands, brought up before Judge Justi by Deputy Sheriff Mullen and paid a fine of $10 for trespassing.

Thursday Sheriff Joe Ryan came down from Santa Rosa and invaded the marsh in quest of two cabin dwellers at Bay Shore who were alleged by Dr. J. E. Spalding of Richmond to have destroyed and taken away his elaborate $350 duck blind. Ryan enlisted the aid of his friend, Superintendent Joe Keechler, of the Jones ranch, who gave him a launch to make the trip to the inaccessible spot out on a slough's edge, where Robert and Edward Wagner were taken into custody. They had the duck blind, but claimed they had not destroyed it as alleged, but found it floating in the slough and salvaged it. They entered a plea of not guilty and were released on nominal bail.

SECRET MARRIAGE

TOLD ON 21st BIRTHDAY

Joseph Felder, popular Sonoma boy, son of Mrs. T. Felder and youngest of the well known family, was secretly married last July to Miss Lucia LaFranchi, charming Novato girl. News of the wedding was recently announced on the day young Felder became 21 years of age. The young couple are being congratulated.

SONOMA DENTIST

MOURNS FATHER

Dr. F. J. Fraher, Sonoma dentist, was called to San Francisco this week on account of the death of his father, Phillip E. Fraher, retired policeman of that city. Deceased died very suddenly in a San Francisco restaurant where he had been eating. He was very prominent in fraternal circles and popular in city police circles. In addition to his son in Sonoma, the late Mr. Fraher left a widow and son, Phillip, and several grandchildren. Brothers and sisters also mourn him.

The funeral was on Tuesday from St. Paul's church, where a solemn requiem high mass was celebrated. The Knights of Columbus, San Francisco Council No. 615, attended in a body the impressive services. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery.

No More Daisies For The Prohis

Daisy Simpson, for several years a dry agent has retired from the sleuth business. The new chief says no more women will be employed to run down prohibition offenders. Daisy was well known here where she once worked for ex-Senator Grant, of red light abatement fame and later for the federal prohibition office. She was numerous disguises, frequented Sonoma Valley resorts and trapped more than one person into selling her a little drink. In San Francisco she packed two guns and was the terror of hotel bell boys who now and then tried to please the lady by furnishing her a little "shot."

CHARLESTON CONTEST TONIGHT AT VERANO

The Goodie Shaffer orchestra will play for a big dance at Coney Island tonight, where a Charleston contest will be the main attraction of the all night affair. Contestants from all surrounding cities, including local talent, will "do their stuff" and cash prizes will be awarded.

The Coney Island winter season, which is featuring Goodie Shaffer's music, is under the personal direction of Louis Parente. Dances to date have been well attended and of an orderly character.

Masseur Gets No Damages In Suit Against Lambert; Jury Out Fifteen Minutes.

The jury in the case of J. J. Kaufman, masseur, against L. F. Lambert, Sonoma druggist, brought in a verdict for Lambert Tuesday, deciding that Kaufman was not entitled to the $20,000 damages he sought for a finger alleged to have been negligently treated by Lambert.

Attorney Frank Sprague and Attorney Bruce Phillips of the Druggists' Association, appeared for Lambert. Sprague made a strong presentation of the case for the Sonoma druggist, denying all the allegations of the masseur, who claimed that Lambert poisoned him and finally caused him the loss of the digit. Sprague introduced testimony to show that Kaufman was suffering from a felon of which he complained a week prior to interviewing Lambert.

Witnesses from Cordelia swore that the masseur was suffering from the finger while visiting up there. After returning to Sonoma, he delayed seeing a doctor, although, according to his testimony, he is a graduate nurse and should have known that he had an infection. Instead, he treated his own finger and one day complained to the druggist of the pain. Testimony went to show that Lambert offered him hot water in which to bathe his finger and put an antiseptic tablet in the water. Kaufman complained that he had no hot water in

Plea of Poverty Wins Respite For Sonoma

So ably and forcibly did City Attorney Postlewaite present the defense of Sonoma City in not having bettered sewer farm conditions below town the State Board of Health at a hearing of the situation Saturday in San Francisco made no mandatory ruling as to future requirements. The state authorities told the Grange delegation and other complainants present that they were satisfied of Sonoma's good faith and advised them to get together with the city trustees on a program of betterment.

The city attorney said it was Sonoma's poor financial condition that had precluded the expenditure of money to improve the sewer farm, or carry sewage to tide water; that a plan was on foot to have assessments raised and thus bring up the town's revenue; that Sonoma was too poor to call a special election for the proposed sewer bonds, but was considering submitting the proposition at the regular election in April.

City Engineer Specht testified that conditions at the sewerfarm were better now than formerly and asked if Santa Rosa's sewer farm method might not prove satisfactory. The Board of Health refused to comment on Santa Rosa's experiment. They said, however, that Sonoma had never received a permit to operate a sewer farm nor applied for one, and that thereby the trustees laid themselves wide open to suit for damages.

Sheriff Ryan's Sharp Shooters Have Try-Out

"Don't shoot unless you have to, but when you have to shoot, shoot straight." These instructions, given by Sheriff Ryan to his deputies marked the inauguration of a series of small arms target practice meets planned to bring the officers up to a high degree of accuracy in the use of their revolvers. Sheriff Ryan, Deputies Gus Jewett, Harry Patten and W. A. Shulte and County Detective Westphal spent a half hour in the jail yard Saturday firing at a small target. Ryan plans to rig up a life size dummy to be operated on a pulley line so that deputies can practice under conditions similar to shooting at a fugitive lawbreaker.

CONGRESSMAN

LEA RECOVERS

Congressman Clarence F. Lea, who has been confined to his bed for the last week with a severe cold, has sufficient recovered to be out of bed. He announces that he and Mrs. Lea will leave Sunday for Washington to be on hand for the opening session of congress December 7th. Lea planned to leave early this week, but his plans were altered because of his illness. Mr. and Mrs. Lea will not return to Santa Rosa until next June, as the Congressman's time until then will be occupied with legislative sessions and conferences.

The Congressman has never been in greater demand as a speaker than upon his return from Washington this year. His ever widening experience and prestige at Washington makes him sought after all over the district.

FIRE SCARE IN THE BUSINESS DISTRICT

The holiday quiet of Armistice Day in Sonoma was broken by a fire alarm early Wednesday afternoon. A blind fire between the partition of the Dutil bakery on Broadway brought the fire department to the scene. Fire Chief Valente tore away a small area of the wall, located the overheated joist and put the chemical on it with good effect.

It is thought that the wall back of the doughnut kettle became overheated and caused the scare. Smoke was seen issuing from the wall by R. F. Abele, who sounded the alarm. The damage was nominal.

MRS. OTTO DRESEL ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Otto Dresel was hostess to the Junior Bridge Club Wednesday. A dainty luncheon preceded the card playing, table decorations being in the yellow tones. High score for the afternoon was made by Mrs. L. H. Golton, with Mrs. Nancy Olin low score. The first prize was an iridescent compote dish.

LEGION WELFARE COMMITTEE WILL RECOMMEND HOME

One of Three Billets In U. S. For Children of World War Veterans May Come To Sonoma Valley.

One of three billets or orphans' homes maintained by the national endowment fund of the American Legion may come to Sonoma Valley of the State of California grants the long term lease to be asked on the defunct women's industrial farm at Buena Vista, the location recommended by state Legionnaires, and the national president of the Auxiliary, Eliza Shepard. The other homes for orphans of World War veterans are located in Kansas and Michigan, and the Pacific Coast billet will probably be established in Sonoma Valley. No more beautiful or healthful location could have been recommended than this typical California acreage in the Valley of the Moon. It is located in the foothills just two miles from Sonoma City. Once the home of the wealthy Kate Johnson, the garden and grounds were the handsomest in Northern California.

It was purchased a few years ago by the State of California from A. Callicud, later day owner of the place, and converted into a farm for delinquent women, a scheme of uplifters which proved a dismal failure and resulted in the waste of a big legislative appropriation and the loss, thru a mysterious fire, of the mansion on the property. Subsequently the Department of Institutions recommended that the "farm" be abolished, and although the legislature attempted to pass a bill appropriating money for its revival, Governor Richardson vetoed the bill.

The property, which had been improved by the state with a modern brick hospital, has since been idle, with the exception of a small colony of epileptic patients from the State Home for feeble minded, at Eldridge, which have tenanted it.

The Board of Control is said to be favorable to leasing the acreage to the American Legion for the orphans' home, as the epileptics can be amply (Continued on Page Five)

BOY INJURED BY SHOT GUN SHELL

Austin Stillings, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stillings, of El Verano, met with a painful accident this week as a result of which he was badly powder burned.

The boy found an old shot gun shell and proceeded to probe its contents. Taking a hammer and chisel, he struck at it, the shell went off and the powder therein burned him very painfully. He was hurried to the office of Dr. McGrath for treatment.

Had the shell contained shot, the boy would have probably been killed, as would have a younger sister who was watching him break the shell.

Mr. and Mrs. Giacomelli of Vineburg have a baby girl, born this week. Dr. McGrath reports mother and babe doing nicely.

RADICALS AND SOB SISTERS ARE TURNED DOWN

Upton Sinclair, the author and radical who sought to intervene in the criminal syndicalism case for Anita Whitney, tackled the wrong man when he thought he could reach Governor Richardson. The Governor turned the radical down and soundly rapped his kind. He declared that the law directed against the enemies of government must be upheld and that as Governor he was pledged to uphold it despite pleas from parlor Socialists for a high class convicted offender.

The Governor evidently debelieves, with Judge Rolfe Thompson, that the crime is more reprehensible in a well to do, socially prominent, intelligent woman than in a poor, underfed, unintelligent under dog. The lowly, unknown law breaker, with no pull, would take his, or her, medicine when convicted of criminal syndicalism, but the elect have taken up Miss Whitney to make a political issue on the eve of Governor Richardson's declaration in the gubernatorial campaign. Campaign or no campaign Richardson does as he thinks right and sob sisters or radicals cannot stampede him, even at the threat of political extinction.

His firm stand has brought forth praise from many quarters, including

Sonoma County's Superior Judge Rolfe Thompson, and the California State Grange, in convention at Sacramento, which passed a resolution commending his determination not to nullify the syndicalism act. The resolution, in part, states:

"We, the members of the California State Grange, do commend the Governor of this State for resisting the popular clamor and ill-advised pressure which has been brought to bear on him in an effort to have him nullify the penal provisions of our criminal syndicalism act, and, furthermore, that we express our belief in the necessity for the continuance of this act upon the statute books of this State, to the end that our government may have the right to protect itself from its enemies, both in foreign lands and at home."

"CANNED HEAT" CANNED

The following dispatch from Palo Alto, seat of learning, says a volume anent the success of prohibition:

"An ordinance prohibiting the sale or possession of 'canned heat' in Palo Alto was adopted by the city council last night after Police Judge E. D. Larkin had told of instances of intoxication from that chemical!"

Now, why not prohibit the sale of flavoring extracts, perfumes and veneer? You can get a jag on everyone if you like the stuff. There was a time when "canned heat" was a respectable commodity, used by mothers to warm the milk for the baby, by girls to curl their hair, and by travelers for various conveniences. To think that "canned heat" is now a contraband booze in the classic precincts of cultured Palo Alto. Solidified alcohol for jellyfish intellects must go.

STATE TO HAVE TYPICAL REPRESENTATIVE

The appointment of Editor Sheppard of Auburn to be California's representative at the Reno exposition is a splendid one. Sheppard is a typical Californian, full of the hospitable spirit of the old West, a courteous gentleman with a gracious wife who will be among the first ladies of the official family at the coming exposition in honor of the Wendover cut-off completion and opening. Governor Richardson chose wisely and well in the selection of the Auburn man.

EL VERFANO P. T. A. HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Among the sections of Sonoma Valley which celebrated Hallowe'en none had a more enjoyable affair than that given by the El Verano Parent-Teachers' Association. The school house was decorated in black and yellow, the Hallowe'en spirit being in evidence throughout. There was an informal program, games, contests and a wiener roast. Prize winners in contests included Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. J. Baines and W. Schulman.

At 10 o'clock the merry makers gathered at the creek just outside the school and there the P. T. A. ladies served the wieners, which were roasted over hot coals. Buns, pickles, pumpkin pie and coffee were enjoyed. Over 100 members and guests participated in this nice party, which was arranged by a committee composed of Mrs. Finchum, Mrs. Streeter, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Norrbom.

THE KIWANIS CLUB

The meeting of the Kiwanis Club here this week was under the direction of Napa Club, with Dr. Coleman of that city as speaker. He told of his experiences in very vivid and entertaining manner. There were also stories told by another Napa contributor, Jimmy Maher, who was very clever at dialect. The next program will be put on by Vallejo Kiwanians. Kiwanis members expect to take up a definite local program very shortly and are planning a reception to the Woman's Club, with whom they hope to co-operate for civic betterment.

FORMER EMBARCADERO GIRL HERE FROM SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Spencer of Los Angeles (Flora Vollmer) and Mr. and Mrs. Hill and father, also of the Southern city, were here last week on a motor tour. They had just returned from a trip to Eureka in their Wyllis-Knight.

Mrs. Spencer, who was the daughter of a pioneer hotel man of Embarcadero, and one of the pretty girls of that section about 30 years ago, called on a number of old friends while here, including Miss Mattie Goodman, of Broadway.

M. Y. Hansen, the contractor, accompanied by his family, motored up from San Francisco and spent the week end at their Fetters Springs home.

The Hansens are prospering in San Francisco, where Mr. Hansen is erecting many buildings, both bungalows and apartments. They will remain in the city for the winter, but declare it is a genuine pleasure to come to Sonoma Valley on week ends and they eagerly look forward to the trips.

BOYES SPRINGS CLUB NOTES

A rumor of the purchase of the Boyes Springs Improvement Club property brought to gether a number of the members Monday night, and after considerable discussion pro and con it was finally decided to postpone action until the next regular meeting of the club on November 23rd, when a full membership would be in attendance to carefully and fully consider the proposition.

A surprise whist party will be held at the club house November 20th, at which you will meet a delegation from the barn yard, including all the aristocracy of the farm from Mr. Turkey Gobbler to Mr. Wiener Wurst, with a little Porker on the side. The ladies are sparing no effort to make the event a grand and glorious occasion. There will be good music and dancing and everyone is invited.

On November 23rd, there will be nomination of officers and election for the ensuing term.

CARD OF THANKS

We are unable to personally thank the many kind friends who so generously helped us during the recent fire at our home. Therefore, we take this means of expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation to friends and neighbors, and members of the Sonoma and Boyes Springs fire departments. Mere words cannot express our gratitude for the kindness and sympathy extended to us by the people of Sonoma and vicinity.

R. C. Bancroft and Family.

Tonight the Women's Improvement Club of Glen Ellen will give the regular November dance at the club house. A cordial welcome is extended to all dance lovers.

Lyle F. Campbell, of the High School faculty, has rented one of the artistic bungalows in the Hunt tract for his bride-to-be. Mr. Campbell will be married during the Christmas holiday vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ray of Oakland, and Mrs. Jackson and niece of Mill Valley were Sunday visitors of Miss Hattie Dutton. Mr. Ray is a prominent realtor of Oakland and has recently erected a $1,000,000 office building on Broadway, Oakland. Mrs. Ray was formerly on the State Board of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Weise of Glen Ellen will attend the U. C.-Stanford football game next Saturday at Palo Alto.

On Friday afternoon of last week there was a pleasant gathering at the Erazmus home. It was an informal affair to which friends just appeared to drop in. Those present were Mrs. M. Akers, Miss Dutton, Mrs. Shirley Weise, Mrs. Emma McDonald, Miss Ruth McDonald, Mrs. R. J. Snyder, Mrs. Mitchell, and others. The hostess served coffee, pumpkin pie and other good things.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Andrieux are expected from Summit and after this winter may not return to that section as Mr. Andrieux contemplates going into business. He has been employed on the S. P. railroad.

There will be a thimble tea at the G. H. Hotz home Tuesday, given by St. Barbara's Guild. A silver offering for the Guild fund will be received.

Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft and daughter, Dorothy, have moved to one of the Sebastiani bungalows while their house is undergoing repairs as a result of the recent fire. Mr. Bancroft carried "rent insurance" and will be compensated by the insurance company for his rent while in the rented house.

Mrs. Shirley Weise, Mrs. M. Akers, Mrs. W. Minkel and Miss Dutton went to St. Helena Thursday.

TRIES TO LEAP FROM WINDOW DURING RAID

Two men and a woman were arrested by Sonoma county officers on Thursday after a raid at the Kenwood hotel, in which the deputies, according to the report at the sheriff's office, had to act with speed in order to prevent destruction of two bottles of jackass brandy seized as evidence. Andy Fornasier, 38, booked as proprietor of the hotel, Marjorie Raymond, 29, a house maid, and B. Bertini, 29, a laborer, were arrested.

According to the officers, Fornasier shouted a warning in Italian as the raiding squad entered the house. County Detective Westphall immediately jumped on the proprietor in an effort to throttle him and prevent the warning, while the raiders dashed up stairs where they found Bertini about to leap from a second story window with the two bottles in his pockets, they said. The bottles were seized and Bertini arrested.

All three were booked at the county jail and later pleaded not guilty to charges of possession. Trial was set for Monday, November 23rd.

TURKEY SHOOTS INTEREST SONOMA VALLEY SPORTS

The annual turkey shoots which will be held at the Sganzzini and Stornetti ranches Sunday, November 22, are to attract large crowds. The Felder Brothers and C. Sganzzini are putting on the shoot west of town, while Charles Stornetti and Frank Rhode are holding the shoot on the Napa road at the Stornetti ranch.

Many fine birds have been secured for the crack shots and the big day will come off, rain or shine.

PRIZES GALORE, AND SUCH ONES!

At the big pre-holiday whist party of the Boyes Springs Improvement Club on Friday night, November 20, there will be prizes too numerous to mention. The club is offering some fat turkeys, big geese, ducks, chickens and two pedigreed greyhound pups. Other prizes are also to be announced. The committee invites everyone to attend, enjoy the whist, win a prize and partake of good eats.

HARRY KENNEL OWNER OF PROPERTY AT BOYES

The property damaged by fire for which Dan Kennel, Boyes Springs man, was arrested on a charge of attempted arson early last week, is owned entirely by Harry Kennel, brother of the accused. Reports of the fire as given out by officers stated that the property, located at Boyes, was owned jointly by the brothers.

OLD TIMER MOVES TO TOWN

Jack Wilson, old time resident of Locust Grove and former jolly tar of the Embarcadero, has moved to Sonoma with the Harold Pauli family. Wilson, now 78 years of age, is hale and hearty as in the days when he and Jim Small of Vineburg used to put on their famous Chinese and black face act together.

DEATH OF MISS CLUVER

Miss Louise Cluver, a sister of Mrs. Will Hocker of Oakland, formerly of this place, died in San Jose this week. Miss Cluver often visited here while a resident of Petaluma.

UPHOLDS GOVERNOR RICHARDSON'S STAND

James Fisk, state adjutant of the American Legion, spoke as follows at the Armistice Day exercises held at Paso Robles:

"The cry of the sob sisters to pardon this man or that woman who has preached or practiced sedition, is a noise that should be quickly drowned out by the voice of loyalty. The law governing criminal syndicalism is a right and good law and breakers of that law, no matter what their rank, should be punished. Such a person is an enemy to the Americanism arising from our declaration of independence.

provided for at the big Eldridge institution. If the Board of Control cannot legally grant the necessary lease, legislative approval of the plan will be sought. Governor Richardson is said to be in sympathy with the plan to give state support to the project by granting the lease.

Sonoma Valley property owners in the vicinity of the farm are very enthusiastic over the prospect of having this national billet for orphan children in their midst. State Legion Posts and Auxiliaries would be expected to furnish the cottages erected and provide a fund for repairs, insurance and upkeep of the buildings. They have already signified their willingness to make the orphanage one of the most beautiful and complete in the United States.

ADVANCE GUARD OF SEALS NOW AT BOYES

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our thanks to all our friends who stood so nobly by us in our recent hour of sorrow in the loss of a loving husband and father, the late Stephen Prout, of Glen Ellen. For the beautiful flowers we are also most appreciative.

Mrs. Mary Prout and Family.

COTILLION CLUB HAD NICE DANCE

The Cotillion Club had a very enjoyable party Thursday evening at the Woman's Club house. In addition to dancing there were clever program numbers, including topical songs by the G. B. R. trio and character songs in costume by East Side talent.

Decorations were autumn foliage and Christmas berries, while the tables for the midnight repast were colorfully decorated with branches of Japanese persimmons. About twenty-five couples participated.

WATER EXPERT IN TOWN

A. C. Maier of Boyes Springs was in town one day this week from the State Home, where he is now employed. Mr. Maier was instrumental in getting the splendid water supply for the big institution this year, 400,000 gallons a day being supplied from the wells and tunnel systems near the dairy ranch site. Maier, an experienced mining and irrigation man, sunk shafts and with a tunnel system has succeeded in demonstrating once more that there is plenty of water in Sonoma Valley if you know how to go after it.

Maier has long advocated impounding the water of Agua Caliente canyon as the source of a big fire protective system for the Springs section, El Verano and Sonoma. He says the proposition is feasible.

SELLS RUM FROM

AUTO AT DANCE

Caught while selling liquor from his automobile at a Fulton dance on Saturday night, Voorhies Sund, 21, is in the county jail awaiting arraignment on charges of liquor sale, possession and transportation.

According to Deputy Shulte, who made the arrest, Sund had lines of eager customers on both sides of his machine and was dispensing drinks as fast as he could pour out the liquor and collect payment. Seeing the crowd, Shulte joined it and when Sund accepted money for a drink he served Shulte the latter arrested him and took him to the county jail.—Santa Rosa Republican.

VISITED NAPA LODGE

The following Verdant Rebekahs visited Ivy Rebekah Lodge at Napa on Saturday, November 7th: Mesdames Emma Small, Minnie Nelson, Alice Knolle, Anna Palmer, Lillian Lund, Helena Scholl, Aggie Riecke, Johanna Bill, Jr., Kate Angove, Ada Pauli and Wright; Misses Gladys Small, Nellie Peterson, Agnes Revie, Bertha Warthorst, Nettie McConochie, Stella McGill and Alice Young; Messrs. Roy Bill, Oscar Lund, Frank Gjorne and William Wright.

The initiation work was witnessed and afterwards dancing was enjoyed, with an appetizing banquet at the conclusion of the evening.

MRS. SHEPARD WELCOMED AT HEADQUARTERS

Mrs. Eliza Shepard of Glen Ellen, who has assumed her duties at American Legion Auxiliary headquarters at Indianapolis, has been warmly welcomed there by Legionnaires. She is enjoying her work and has a splendid staff of assistants. Headquarters are on the second floor of the beautiful Memorial Building, the gift of the State of Indiana, in memory of their World War soldiers. Her offices comprise seven beautiful sunny rooms with large lobby and club room, all richly furnished with Oriental rugs and mahogany furniture, the furnishings being the gift of the units throughout the departments.

The American Legion Press Association prints a very complimentary introduction of the Auxiliary's new national president, showing that the newspaper genius of Indianapolis value Eliza Shepard at her true worth.

We quote the articles, as follows: "When Jack London was creating countless virile tales that rushed from his untiring pen with amazing speed and regularity, the world exclaimed: 'What tremendous energy.' And the world was right. Jack London had energy—seemingly an artesian fountain of it.

"But the world does not know, perhaps, that this rushing and turbulent stream of London energy was denied every outlet save the point of a freely flowing pen through the conserving, constraining and directing genius of another equally energetic individuality of the house of London—Jack's sister, Eliza.

Eliza London Shepard was the buffer, who stood between her talented younger brother and the prosaic demands made by a mundane world upon a mind too engrossed in creation to cerebration on taxes, insurance rates and the problems of managing a ranch.

"That same directing genius, and the ability to keep square pegs in square holes, are the qualities the women of the American Legion Auxiliary were impressed with when they elected Mrs. Shepard to the national presidency of the Auxiliary at Omaha recently.

"At Glen Ellen, California, or the Valley of the Moon, scene of Jack London's famous novel of that name, is Mrs. Shepard's ranch home. There, with Mrs. Charmian Kittredge London, widow of Jack London, Mrs. Shepard has lived and carried on the management of the London ranch since her famous brother's death. The intricate legal details that are the bane of most women property owners have never worried Mrs. Shepard, for she is a lawyer by profession and unwinds red tape as readily as most of her sex unwind a skein of yarn.

"Mrs. Shepard has given much of her life to women's patriotic organizations. She is a past department commander of the American Legion Auxiliary of California and a past national executive committee woman. She has been a member of the Women's Relief Corps for 35 years and is also a member of the Daughters of Veterans.

"With typical Londonian virility, Mrs. Shepard immediately took up the work of the Auxiliary upon arriving at national headquarters at Indianapolis.

"There is much to be done," said Mrs. Shepard, with a twinkle in her intelligent blue eyes as she turned to her desk with an air of finality that seemed to say, 'and we must be at it at once.' Whereupon our interview with the Auxiliary's energetic and gracious new leader was at an end."

FORMER GLEN ELLEN BUTCHER PASSES AWAY

Steve Prout, former Glen Ellen butcher, and later of the State Home at Eldridge, died November 6th after a lingering illness. Mr. Prout recently returned from Colfax where he went in hope of regaining his health but he became so ill that hope was given up and he came home to spend his last days.

Mr. Prout was a man of business integrity and enjoyed the friendship of a large circle of acquaintances. He was possessed of many excellent traits of character and a genial personality. He was in business in Glen Ellen for several years.

Deceased leaves a widow, Mary Prout, and a son, Richard J. Prout, and four daughters, Mrs. G. Woods, Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. A. R. Tooker and Geraldine Prout. He was a native of England, aged 61 years.

Funeral services were under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge of Santa Rosa, on Monday.

FORMER VIGILANTE BELL IS RETURNED TO S. F.

Robert Newton Lynch, vice president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, last week addressed the members of the Petaluma Baptist church in regard to the disposal of the Vigilante bell, owned by the church since the pioneer days, and succeeded in getting the relic returned to San Francisco.

The trustees gave the bell to the directors of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, to be held in trust for that city. It will be displayed in the main hall of the Chamber of Commerce quarters in the Merchants' Exchange building, where it may be seen at all times with a history telling the part it took in helping the Vigilantes to enforce law and order in the stirring days in San Francisco.

It was Manville Doyle who obtained the bell for Petaluma from San Francisco. It was fitted into the Baptist church steeple for missionary purposes. It was early in the 60's that the Petaluma Baptists realized they had no bell, while the Methodists did. A Baptist meeting was called. Doyle took the chair. He declared a bell was as necessary to a Baptist congregation as a river and he took a collection and got $500.

He went to San Francisco and learned that the old bell had been lying in cold storage since the days when Fort Gunnybags was dismantled. From Conroy, O'Connor and Company, Doyle bought the bell for $500. It cost another $100 to wrap it up and get it aboard a boat and started on its way.

The bell in its new office filled the bill, and its voice filled all Petaluma and Two Rock Valley.

But the Petaluma mission of the bell was not to be only of peace and good will. It tolled when death harvested the Federal regiments at Shiloh and when the Southern chivalry was halted in the gory trenches of Gettysburg.

Soon after the assassination of President Lincoln, and following a factional fight which almost disrupted the church, the historic bell disappeared. Later it was found in the Bayliss warehouse under a pile of potatoes and returned to its place.

One night not long after this event, a single, short, sharp note clanged out from the steeple and then all was still. Next day somebody rang the bell and instead of the expected round, throbbing tone, a The bell had been cracked, presumably, harsh, discordant jangle broke out. ably with a heavy hammer.
